Re: Apparent Error in Deposit Account
Account No. 19-0590
Our Ref: INF-009

Sir:

Enclosed is a copy of the 3/31/98 Deposit Account of the undersigned in which the highlighted item is questioned. The matter relates to serial No. 08/927,022, control No. 31. The transaction date is 3/23/98.

The charge in the amount of $20.00 (Fee Code 101) represents a charge to the basic filing fee in a patent application where the entity is other than a small entity.

On September 10, 1997 check No. 14140 in the amount of $385.00 was submitted with the patent application of Steven T. Kirsch, accompanied by a verified statement claiming small entity status for applicant Steven T. Kirsch and small business concern, Infoseek Corporation, the assignee.

Just after filing of the application, it was determined that possibly certain technology could possibly involve the patent application and that, out of caution, small entity status should not have been declared. A Verified Statement Explaining Error in Connection with Small Entity Status was filed by the undersigned, and Check No. 14554 was submitted in the amount of $385.00. It is believed that the two checks, representing a total of $770, the correct filing fee on the filing date, should be the proper amount.
